"GONE FOREVERMORE"

by Babsie Kraus and Dan Wilson

Once upon a school night dreary, while I studied weak and weary,
Over many a dull and curious volume of forgotten math,
While I nadded, nearly napping, I began to think of school,
Of my three lang years of study, study at my trusty desk,
Of my teachers, friends, and books that brake my back.
But now they're gone - - - forevermore.

Ah, distinctly I remember all the big books I've had here,
That "OUR NATION" still will haunt me 'til I think I shall go mad.
Oft I've left this muscle builder in my locker for the night,
We've taken it and studied all
And the strength to bear this
- - - forevermore.

Eternally will I remember all the teachers here at East,
How they've driven us like slaves and cracked the whip abave our heads,
How they've had us burn the oil to one or twa a'clock.
Now we see it not in vain, but far our lasting gaad.
And now I want to take the time ta thank them earnestly,
But now they're gane, oh, jay, ah, jay, they're gone forevermore.

And our lessons never finished, never finished but saan ta be,
From that dreadful book af Latin ta my book af algebra.
Ta the future we are looking, of the future we are dreaming,
Ta a time when we can also put our books upon the shelf.
Far three lang years we've had the joys af work and play together.
But now they're gane - - - forevermore.

HERE'S LOOKIN' AT 'EM!

The end of another semester has overtaken us, and with it has come the realization that we must leave the great supporting envelope in which we have taken refuge and in which we have endeavored to broaden our knowledge and understanding of life. After three years of work and play, the time has come for us to leave "Dear East High," and make way for others. But before we go, we should like very much to reflect back upon our happy days of high school.

Now as we thoughtfully stroll down Memory Lane, so many thoughts of the past flood our minds that we should like to put them down here for our readers to enjoy, perhaps as much as we have. And in years yet to come, perhaps we shall wipe the dust from our old high school annual, and all of the events of our happy days here at East High will come to mind as vividly as if they had happened only yesterday.

One of our first recollections will probably be the happy smile that always comes from Duane Ellis. And, of course, we won't fail to mention "Lilly Jo", too, who always enjoyed snogging her best hose on Duane's old car.

We'll always wonder if Jim Green ever removed that "something" from his eye which made him appear to be winking at all of the girls. And we'll wish we knew how many pairs of shoes Barbara Duvall has worn out in her many trips in and out of class all day.

One day in the distant future, a few of us will probably call on the Bill Evanses and find Shirley and Bill still hand in hand just as they come. Or perhaps we'll visit the Bill Kings to find much the same scene.

Although in our reminiscences we'll think of Russ Johnson passing a note to Lucile, or asking someone for an answer, our memories of Russ will never be less than fond ones.

As the years pass faster and thoughts grow deeper, we'll wonder who has taken the place of Wendell Murrow in intercepting the flying paper wads in room 209 during the second period.

We'll miss the songs of the girls' sextet and all of the other musical combinations around school. The fun of the disc jockey programs on KCBC will be sadly left behind.

Undoubtedly Beverlee Bricker will miss her quarrels with Mr. Gregory. And who will take the place of Barbara Mullin who is always ready with some new and different word or phrase to confuse us all?

The impression of Norma Jenkins' beautiful diamond will last for quite some time.

Thinking of diamonds, our thoughts will naturally move on to Joan Gill, Wrennie Weir, Betty Witt, Delores Onder, and Ruth Batye.

Remembrance will also induce us to worry about Milton Reece, wondering if he ever came down out of the clouds after flying over so many high jumps.

Certainly thoughts of Little H. Anderson and Big Dale Alam, the Mutt and Jeff of East High, will always be fresh in our minds. And while we're on the subject of little things, Kenny Desing certainly has a load of power in that little body of his.

Fifteen years from now, at one of East High's alumni assemblies, we'll look around the auditorium and quietly pat ourselves on the back as we reflect back to June, 1948, and the following synopsis of our class:

The Class Athlete: Bud Hornback

The Class Brains: Lyle Gaston, Ellen Sideman

The Class Dancers: Bill Thornton, Lauralyn Blair

The Class Dressers: Dick Knop, Polly Hansen

The Look: Hugh McGillivray, Susanna Formaro

The Most Likely to Succeed: Pat Kavanagh, B. Johnson

The Class Musician: Bob Peterson, Marilyn Sandler

The Class Pepster: Johnnie Rex, Anna Belle Gardner

The Best Personality: Dick Peterson, Eloise Wiseman

The Voice: Jerry Brady, Vera Gleason

The Class Wit: Arnold Lack, Henrietta Robinson

Thoughts of Quill and Scroll campaigns and ticket selling will naturally remind us of Jack Chinn, the fellow with the so-many relatives. And, of course, we won't need to wonder if Mr. Wilson's home room 14 is still winning all of the contests at East.

We need a fortune teller to predict the future, but our intuition tells us that we'll see Jean M. still swimming in Bud Hornback's letter sweaters (all of them, that is) in our cruise back to 1948.

Perhaps, on picking up a newspaper at the corner newsstand, we will see in headlines: M-G-M BUYS RIGHT TO NEW NOVEL BY DELORES MERZEL.

All of our wonderful memories could linger on and on forever, but time does not stand still, and we must be trudging ahead into our future. We must go out into the world and carry the glorious name of East High to the far corners of the earth and to greater heights.

CONDUCTORS & ENGINEERS

The greatest of all conductors of trains is our own principal, Mr. O. G. Prichard. The students of East High look with respect to Mr. Prichard for capable guidance and direction throughout the years. He is assisted by the loyal help of his two engineers, Miss Helmreich and Mr. Williams. We are proud of our girls' advisor, Miss Agnes Helmreich, who is a cheerful social leader and admired by all who know her and others. She does remarkably well in her position.

Mr. D. Q. Williams, with his splendid leadership as vice-principal of East High and the boys' advisor, is an outstanding figure as he works along with the boys, schedules our school sports, and directs our night school.

Mrs. Alice Clark, our school nurse, has devoted herself to the health of our East High boys and girls and fulfills her position capably and faithfully. East High also expresses its indebtedness to Miss Dorothy Steffens, our efficient secretary, to Miss Alma Hammer, our splendid registrar, and to Miss Carrie Larson, our capable librarian.

TRAVELERS' AIDS

All travelers, in order to reach their destination soundly and safely, must have the help of the travelers' aids.

East High feels that its travelers receive the finest of service from these aids, the teachers. Our faculty labors long, hard hours helping us receive greatest knowledge to the best of our ability and strives to see that we do not miss a thing as we travel along. These aids have devoted their time and talents to the good of others. They are always glad to give assistance and help to individuals.

For these functions performed and for the abundance of knowledge obtained with the help of these teachers, we take this opportunity to say, "Thank you."

Considered the mast important body of East High, the Student Cauncil takes an active part in making and maintaining rules by which the students are expected to abide. Miss Agnes Helmreich, wha sa ably advises the Cauncil, is always an hand ta consult when a problem arises.

The Cauncil is divided inta committees which meet ta discuss problems which might occur in connectian with their groups; the committees are headed as "Executive", "Ath-letics", "Building and Graunds", "Campaign", "Citizenship", "Historical", "P.T.A.", "Public Entertainment", "Red Crass", "Schalarship" and "Social". Twa of the biggest prblems which the Cauncil has attempted ta overcame are thase af the noise and the papers being scattered about during each of the movie periads. By leaving the back lights on and by placing baskets near each exit, the Cauncil has been partially successful in achieving its objective.

The officers this semester are Dale Alam, president; Kenny Terrell, vice-president; and Marilyn Patterson, secretary, each daing a fine jab in fulfilling his official duties.

QUILL STAFF

This year's Quill staff, consisting of eighteen seniors, plus the typists and photographers, is one of the largest Quill staffs East High has had in a number of years.

The staff is chosen by Mr. Stratton and Miss McBride from a list of 12th grade English students submitted by teachers at the school.

The faculty advisers, Kenneth Stratton, Harriet Macy, Lester Gabel, and Charles Springate, are being aided in their work this semester by Jim Green, editor, and Vona Ann Larson, associate editor.

The staff spent the first part of the semester studying plans for the Quill and then were divided into groups to take up the actual work on the paper.

The editor of the staff this semester is Babsie Kraus. The managing editor is Delores Merzel, and the page editors are Lucille Sargent, Delores Merzel, Darlene Kohlbusch, Joanne Peterson, Darlene Longnecker, and Dorothy Johnson. A great deal of assistance has been given the staff by the faculty advisors. They are Kenneth Stratton, Charles Springate, and Harriet Macy.

The Scroll staff of last semester, edited by Bob Hedlund received the rating of "All-American" in a recent critical service by the National Scholastic Press Association.

This play, in which members of the audience decided the verdict, was very different from those previously presented by East High. East High is truly proud of the fine job the cast, under the excellent direction of Mrs. Laser, did in presenting this unusual play.

Dance Band

After several years of hoping, East High finally has a dance band of its very own. ## BOYS' AND GIRLS' GLEE CLUBS

To obtain chances for advancement in vocal music and to gain opportunity for public appearances, we have the girls' and boys' glee clubs. They are training under the capable direction of Miss Sigrid Greenhill, who does a remarkable job with the vocal departments of East High's music car. This talent is really ralling along, as they enjoy practicing and singing together at East High's programs and elsewhere.

Many of the members of the Boys' Glee Club and the Girls' Glee Club are chosen to participate, with a great deal of pleasure, and sing with East High's A Cappella Choir. We feel we have an abundant amount of rare talent within the boundaries of our Glee Clubs.

FELLOWSHIP CLUB

Daily devotions ore very much needed, but not many of us realize it. These were two graups af students that met every day possible this year, during the three lunch periads, ta share with each other the warship af God. Giving up their naan-day mavie ta take part in this fellowship, the students felt that it was very warthwhile. They wauld meet, reod scriptures, and sing hymns known through all churches. Often some students wauld prepare a discussian an a certain passage fram the Bible, and accasianally an outside speaker wauld be asked to came in and express his awn ideas af the passage.

SCIENCE CLUB

The Science Club, one of East High's largest clubs, is under the very able leadership of Mr. Lyman this semester. The club was inactive for a number of years until Walter Barnard, East's chemistry teacher, reorganized it three years ago. Much of the club's time is spent taking field trips throughout the city. The president of the club this semester is Bob Peterson.

SHAKESPEAREAN CLUB

The Club Car would be incomplete on the East Train without the Shakespearean Club which was reorganized this past semester. One of the greatest events of the club was the Shakespearean banquet, held in honor of William Shakespeare's birthday, April 21.

Our most capable advisor, Miss Sara McBride, has done a splendid piece of work as advisor with the capable assistance of the president, Gerald Brady; vice-president and program chairman, Arnold Lack; and secretary and treasurer, Wrennie Weir.

SENIOR ZETAGATHEAN

One of the oldest organizations in East is the Zetagathean Club, which has gradually changed from a literary society to a social club. This semester, under the sponsorship of Miss Snyder, the club has presented a play, seen movies on manners, given a tea for the faculty and had a banquet. Officers are Anna Belle Gardner, president; Sylvia Weeks, vice-president; Mary Brandt, secretary; and Marilyn Wagner, treasurer.

JUNIOR ZETAGATHEAN

Because of the large membership in the Zetagathean Club this semester, it became necessary to divide the club into two separate organizations. The Junior Zetagathean is made up of 10B, 10A, and 11B girls and is under the sponsorship of Miss Fickel. This semester the club has had panel discussions and a tea. The officers are Marlene McIntosh, president; Jayce Gibsan, vice-president; Georgia Nittler, secretary; and Gloria Rife, treasurer.

SENIOR DEB CLUB

Sponsored by Miss Marie Engleen, the "Senior Deb Club" is an organization of girls whose founding took place two semesters ago as the "Junior Debs". For initiation the girls wore dark skirts, white blouses, and pig-tails, tied with ribbons of the club colors, pink and blue. Under the able guidance of its sponsor and its president, Marjorie Van Hon, the "Senior Debs" has become a success.

PHILOMATHEAN CLUB

It is said that a fascinating name for a club indeed aids in attracting membership. The "Philomathean Club," whose sponsor is Miss Grace Randell and whose president is Vera Gleason, however, doesn't actually have need of an intriguing title when they plan and take part in such interesting activities as educational trips through the Ft. Des Moines Hotel. The girls in this club make their leisure time worthwhile.

SWIMMING CLUB

This semester, with Mr. Russell as sponsor, a girls' swimming club was organized, with the hope of someday having a girls' swimming team. To prepare the girls for membership a Junior Life Saving class was also started. All girls are urged to try out for this club, whose membership is to be limited to thirty. Acting as temporary officers for this semester were Diana Jahannsen, president; and Reba Shaler, secretary.

SPECIAL INTEREST CLUB

The Special Interest Club, under the supervision of its new advisor, "Scatty" Russell, has a very interesting schedule for this semester.

The club has no definite form that it follows, and its meetings are spent in a very informal manner.

A picnic was held during the semester which turned out to be a great success.

The president of the club this semester was Marvin Sandin.

LATIN CLUB

"Vini, vidi, vinci", and so we find the Latin Club, sponsored by Miss Winifred Cummings and composed of Latin students. Instead of having a president and vice-president as we all know officers, theirs are "Consul", Don Wilson, and "Pro-Consul", Allon Treadwoy. The Latin Club has long been known for its re-enactment of a Roman wedding and colorful banquet held near the end of each semester.

SPANISH CLUB

Commonly called Spanish Club, this group of boys and girls, sponsored by Miss Frances Brewer, has assumed a more effective name, "El Circulo Espanol". It meets, as do other mixed clubs, on the first and third Wednesdays of the month, with something special each time, the most outstanding event of this semester being a Spanish dinner given in the cafeteria. The president is Eloise Wisemon.

These girls meet on Tuesday evening, with their sponsor, Miss Bass, at the Y. This semester the girls had a pot luck dinner, a square dance, wiener roast, hike, and a picnic. The officers are Jenette Stubbs, president; Jean Janes, secretary; and Jean Stubbs, treasurer.

BOYS' HI-Y

The Hi-Y is an organization composed of East High students, which meets each Wednesday evening at 7:30 at the Y.M.C.A. The purpose of the club is to teach the boys clean speech, clean sports and clean living. The advisor, Dan Taylor, is a graduate of East High and has greatly helped the boys in their work this year. The president this year is Russ Jahnsen.

CHESS AND CHECKERS

The Chess and Checkers Club, sponsored by J. A. Seevers, has been called the most informal club in East High school. Meetings are held every two weeks, and refreshments are served at each meeting. The president of the club for the year is Dan Wilson.

BRUSH AND PALETTE

This semester the Brush and Palette Club, with Miss Macy as sponsor, has heard talks on Mexican and Chinese art and has made plans to visit the Register and Tribune art department and the new art museum. President of the club is Lorraine Harrison.

PHOTOGRAPHY CLUB

The Photographers' Club is a new club at East High this year. It is being directed by Miss Helmreich, girls' advisor. The club members have spent much of their spare time either visiting business establishments or taking pictures. The president this year is John Nixon.

STUDENT TEACHERS

Each boy and girl in this group has been recommended by a teacher and appointed through personal conference by Mr. D. O. Wilson on basis of character, scholastic record, and capability for handling classes to replace an absent teacher when a supply teacher is unavailable. In general, each member of the staff has an opportunity to receive this experience, besides performing such a valuable service for the school.

LIBRARY STAFF

The library staff, which is directed by Miss Carrie Larson, the school librarian, is always ready to help any student in the library or book room. These students are selected from a list of names turned in by the teachers of the school, thus making the staff a very select group.

The duties of the staff include helping students, shelving books, checking out books and keeping the book room in order.

Row 1: Larson, Braught, Deaton, Swim, Bardale, Staner, Packey, Williams; Row 2: Lilly, Thompson, Bennett, Woalsey, Strayer, Parks, Stout, Duquette, Ball, Henderson; Row 3: McDaniel, Spizman, Garrison, Barrer, Bricker, Smith, Baumeister, Barnard.

These students take dictotion for letters, receive and deliver telephone colls, ond do other odd, necessary jobs. They do o fine job ond prepore themselves for future pos-tions.

MESSENGERS

These messengers see that the tickets reoch the end of the trip with the traveler. They receive little recognition for the quiet piece of work they do, os they give this fine service to the school.

Chosen from the study holl at the beginning of the semester, these messengers go daily to different clossrooms, collecting obscence slips which they later file in the office boxes where they con be easily found by the right teocher.

ASSEMBLY USHERS

The students in Mr. Wilson's homeroom, 104, and Mr. Goodwin's homeroom, 19, contribute their services through ushering during assemblies. By this we mean that they help visitors to find seats, try to keep the students from running into the auditorium, try to prevent seat-soving and maintain order during the program. The students' cooperation certainly is appreciated by these people who help to make the auditorium a better place for programs.

WARDROBE GIRLS

The wardrobe girls, under the supervision of Miss Hargis, have charge of all costumes which are the property of the school. These girls not only take over the costuming for assemblies, parties, plays, and the May Festival, but also have the big job of keeping two costume rooms in order. A vote of thanks should be given to Miss Hargis and the wardrobe girls for the fine job they are doing.

MOVIE OPERATORS

The movie staff, directed by Walter Stephens, are a very active group in the school and deserve very high praise for their work. The movie operators spend their noon hour in the hot, little booth in the balcony running the noon movies while the girls take money and act as monitors. The movie operators are often called upon to run classroom movies, thus making many days much more enjoyable.

Electricians & Stage Hands

The stage hands and electricians, directed by Mr. Wilbur Yaunt, are one of the "behind the scenes" groups in East High. They are never viewed by the students of the school but deserve a great deal of credit for their work. These boys take charge of the lighting in the movies and assemblies, raising and dropping of the curtains and many other duties. We also should thank the group of boys, headed by Mr. Hommond, who help on the stage setting.

MONITORS

Be sure to have a pink slip in hand while passing through the halls, lest the monitors should have to take action. Yes, we all must acknowledge the authority of those who maintain order in the halls during classtime, as they are rendering a valuable service when they could be making that "2" a "1" with a little extra studying in the study hall. These students, in cooperation with the teachers, participate in enforcing the rules of conduct laid for the benefit of all for keeping the halls clear of traffic so that classes may be carried on in a uniform manner with little or no disturbance from the outside.

Appointed by a teacher, these students are instructed near the beginning of a semester on their duties as a monitor, on how much authority they may express, and on what should be done in certain instances.

The monitors who come on duty sometime near 7:30 each morning are those who won't admit anyone, except teachers and employees, into the building before 8:15 a.m.—that is, anyone without a pink slip.

The gym monitors devote their study periods to aiding Miss Spencer and Mr. Rump.

Among their services they take care of the absences, oftentimes they referee games, the girl gym monitors find the girls' lockets for them, keep people from entering the dressing rooms during class without special permission, and in several other ways help the teachers.

The result of their services is plain and simple to see; they not only save the teachers a great deal of time, but also make the school a quieter, more efficient system.

Cash Register & Cafeteria Girls

While gaining excellent experience, the cafeteria and cash register girls are doing a very effective job in helping to maintain a smooth-running lunch room. ## JANITORS

The janitors, under the supervision of Mr. Edwards, have done a very fine job of keeping East High and its premises in fine shape this year. Many improvements, as new bulletin boards in classrooms, and new doors on lockers, have been made by the janitors during the year.

Cafeteria Ladies

At 6:30 a.m. when most of us are still sleeping, our cafeteria ladies, under the supervision of capable Mrs. Wiggenjast, are at school preparing the nutritious and appetizing lunches which feed an average of 900 students daily.

We students can show our appreciation to the cafeteria ladies by practicing good manners in the lunch room.

FIRST TEAM RECORD

East High has had a successful year although the team did not win all of its games. The record was 10 wins and 7 losses. The team's best game was at West Waterloo where they upset them 32 to 29. Dale Alam was a mainstay in the line-up with Dave Warley playing great ball in the second semester. Gary Perdue was a constant hitter and Dick Phipps and Jerry Eshelman were rebounders. Bill Jensen and Bill Fisher were ballhawks. Walt Mickelson played a good floor game as did Bill Evans.

SECOND TEAM

The East High second team took the city series again this year with some very promising players turning in fine games. Their work started last fall with learning the technicalities of basketball such as passing, dribbling, pivoting defense, offense and general teamwork. Considerable time was given to shooting, too.

They used a very effective zone defense. They held their opponents to an average of 27 points per game while scoring 31.5 themselves. After the season was over the second organized under Frank Steffko, played in different tournaments, winning each one they entered. We are expecting many great things from these boys next year and the year after.

TRACK

The track team this year is again expected to bring back many victories and trophies to East, which, incidentally, has for many years past held a monopoly on many of the high track laurels of the state.

The team as a whole is stronger than in the near past, for they possess a lot of strength in the field events as well as in the many running events.

The fellows are fortunate in having not only Mr. Webb as head track coach, but also Mr. "Mike" Augustine as assistant.

The distance-men are expected to carry a heavy load this year, but our sprinters are expected to make a better-than-average showing.

The schedule of the year for the team is as follows: March 20, A.A.U.; March 26, City Indoor; April 3, State Indoor; April 10, Valley Relays; April 16, Oskey Relays; April 23 and 24, Drake Relays; May 1, Grinnell Relays; May 8, District Meet; May 15, Big Seven Meet; East Waterloo is the host on Cedar Falls track; May 22, State meet at Ames.

COACH

Row 2: McClintock, J. Freeman, Smith, Bell, Lawrence, Willack, Barg, Varme;
Row 3: West, Labus, Burganis, Johnson, Robinson, Kavanagh, Evans, Layman, Jensen, Maigaard.

BASEBALL

This is the second year of baseball for East and the prospects are very bright. Four boys graduated from last year's team and the remainder played on a legion team during the summer. The extra experience has paid off so far. As this is written East has a record of 3 wins and no losses. The scores were 15-0 over Indianola, 4-3 over North, and 4-3 over Roosevelt in an extra inning game. Bill Bell saved the last two games with timely hits and Mel Holl tied the Roosevelt game with a home run. Jim Price is one of the best catchers in the city. The team as a whole is outstanding.

SCHEDULE

April 2, Indianola, here; April 6, North, here; April 9, Roosevelt, there; April 13, Tech, here; April 16, open; April 20, Lincoln, there; April 27, Dowling, there; April 30 and May 1, Big Seven, Fort Dodge; May 4, Dowling, here; May 6, Lincoln, here; May 8-12, Sectional; May 14, Tech, there; May 15-19, District; May 20-21, Roosevelt, here; May 22-25 State; May 25, North, there.

WRESTLING

Row 1: Desing, Hicks, Hole,
Clemens, Cunningham, Stephens;
Row 2: Wilds, Goy, Tharnton,
Eckstrand, Epps, O'Horo, Roe;

Row 3: Widemen, Forbes, King,
Crowford, Burdock, Fores; Row
4: Johnson, Summers, Dones, Dubansky.

The 1947-48 wrestling season started off with a bang as the team beat all their city foes and won the city meet during the first half of the semester. East came through the city meet with 5 championships. The champs were as follows: Jack Epps, 105; Ken Desing, 118; Dave Struthers, 123; Bab Whitehurst, 129; Bab Schmidt, heavyweight.

With the graduation of Dick Eisenlauer, Bab Whitehurst, and Bab Schmidt, East, lacking experience in their replacements, lost to all their Big Seven and city rivals the second semester. The team grappled Newton twice, defeating them once and losing the return match.

In the district meet held in the East High gym, Herbie Hicks, Johnny O'Hara, and Fred King all won the right to wrestle in the State Meet. Unfortunately, they all lost in the finals.

SWIMMING

The swimming team, under the capable leadership of Mr. A. Y. "Scatty" Russell, has improved greatly and are now talking of years to come. The team's record for the year was better than last year. They beat Lincoln twice in two dual meets and were third in the two city meets. The team also tied for last in the state meet.

Rannie Helms, Dick Perick, Stan Gaurd, and Pat Kavanagh are the seniors who graduate in June. Ronnie has been the backbone of the team for three years, winning a letter each year. Dick had some hard luck by breaking his wrist. This left the team without a backstroke. Pat and Stan will be missed from the lineup of "ducks".

As everyone knows, East High is the only senior high school in the city which does not have a standard swimming pool. The "big tub" is too narrow and fifteen feet too short, and diving is just a dream unless one cares to have his head rapped by the very low ceiling. East High has been promised a new pool, but when?

GOLF

The golf team, with the return of 3 letter winners, is looking forward to a very successful season. These three boys, John Phillips, James Booth, and Elmore Collins are expected to make a very good showing. This spart places all the stress upon individual performance, for it is up to every boy to win his match by his own ability, and he can not depend upon others far support.

These fellows perform under the able leadership of the coach, Gus Rump, and their 2-letter captain, John Phillips.

So far this season, the boys have succeeded in decisively defeating all opponents that they have met. The three teams they encountered are Tech, Roosevelt, and Valley. With any luck at all, the fellows will come through this season with flying colors.

The schedule of this season's golf team is as follows: April 6, Valley; April 8, Roosevelt; April 14, Tech; April 16, Dowling; April 22, Lincoln; April 23, North; May 1, Ames; May 8, Big Seven meet at Mason City; May 13, City Meet; May 15, District Meet; and May 22, State Meet at Ames.

TENNIS

COACH

East High's tennis team has a good chance for a winning streak this spring. The boys are working under the guidance of Mr. Raymond Gewerth and have been practicing ever since the first robin which heralds the coming of spring. These boys are prepared for a hard but victorious season.

Two lettermen, Jim Manchester and Carl Grant, are back to spur the squad on to victory. There is much competition among the team for the first three places on the squad.

The boys earn their places by playing each other. When one boy plays and defeats a team member, he takes his opponent's place on the squad until he has gone as far as he can go.

Despite the competition for the top honors this year, newcomers are urgently invited to join the team next year so that East High may continue to be proud of its unconquerable tennis squad.

COACH
KENNETH STRATTON

Jim Green, Ralph Hatcher, Bud Bartine, Johnnie Rex.

Cheerleaders

The cheerleaders, under the leadership of Mr. Kenneth Stratton and the captainship of John Rex, have really raised the roof at the basketball games this year. The quartet of Ralph Hatcher, Bud Bartine, Jim Green, and John Rex was a familiar sight at all the pep assemblies. With the graduation of Ralph, Jim, and John, Bud will be captain next year with the job of recruiting three new leaders.

Student Managers

Every night during the baseball and track season we find these student managers down in the locker room checking in and out equipment to the athletes. They remain there until all the boys have worked out and then turned in their equipment.

The equipment managers are at the track meets and baseball games helping the coaches and team members in many ways. Mr. Rump has picked a fine group of managers. They deserve much praise.

PROPOSED STADIUM

This diagrammed model of the planned East High school stadium and athletic plant tells more than mere words the hugeness of the project that will give the Scarlet and Black one of the finest in the state of Iowa. The scaled model is the work of the students in the mechanical drawing classes of instructor William Hommond at East High and represents many hours of work, it being constructed to an exact scale of one inch to every 50 feet. The model is about the size of the top of a large business desk. The model's green turf was made from turkish towel material dyed green. It is complete even to the wire fence around the entire area, the stadium stands and the poles and miniature lights, which will illuminate the field for night games, the scoreboard and time clock, and the cinder-surfaced track.

The completed plans call for a ball diamond having a right field reaching 280 feet, centerfield of 325 feet and left field of 310 feet. Baseball bleachers back of home plate are planned to seat 670, with plenty of room for later expansion.

A quarter mile track with 120 yard straight-away (20 feet in width) is included in the plans. Also there are two practice fields, seating capacity for 12,000 in the stadium, six cement tennis courts, a physical education field and dressing and equipment rooms.

East High school, since its early days, has long been noted for its outstanding track teams. The Scarlet and Black for fifty some years has turned out some of the fastest cinder men in Iowa . . . its relay teams have been foremost at state meets . . . and many a trophy in the cases will herald these successes.

G. A. A. Officers

Above are Mary Sullivan, president; Anna Belle Gardner, vice-president; Glorio Faught, secretary; and Betty Erickson, publicity secretary. These girls have been presiding over the Girls' Athletic Association for the past semester. This organization sponsored every girls' sport except the new swimming club which is under the management of A. Y. "Scotty" Russell.

Under the G.A.A. comes juggling, tumbling, basketball, golf, baseball, hiking and skating. The pool is open to girl swimmers on Thursdays after school.

By going out after school and working at these many activities, the girls earn points. After earning three hundred points in this way the girls are eligible for a numeral. Five hundred points are required for a letter.

G.A.A. Juggling Team

If you are in the little gym on any Tuesday after school and get hit by a shiny ball or brightly-colored ring, don't be alarmed. It is Miss Spencer putting the juggling team through its paces.

These girls have appeared in several assemblies and in our May Day program, and each time have been received with enthusiasm.

This is their second year of training. At the very beginning they used only rubber balls. When they began to feel fairly accomplished at this, they made shiny rings of many brilliant colors. They have now worked out routines using the rings and the balls. Colleen Elifrits has learned to do the splits and at the same time juggle her rings.

Colleen Elifrits, Horriet Jahn, Joan Stopleford, Florence Holt, Maxine Cunningham, Jean Stubbs, Lauro Miller, Charlotte Peterson, Lois Plummer.

GIRLS' GOLF

The golf season is in full swing along with the players. This year 19 girls have decided to take up this healthful, exciting, competitive sport. Of this number only nine may play in competition. The first nine gain their positions by playing among themselves to determine which are the best golfers. These girls play the stars of other schools and win, naturally. The girls began the season by defeating an unhappy team from Tech High, 3-1.

On certain afternoons the girls are admitted free on the Grandview course, and on these days the girls practice faithfully under the excellent direction of Coach Gus Rump.

The schedule for the semester was Tech (April 14), followed by Lincoln, North, Roosevelt, and the city meet in that order.

GIRLS' TENNIS

The tennis team was out in full swing this season under the skilled leadership of Miss Helen Spencer. It looks as if the girls will have an exciting time even before the inter-school tournament begins. There will be much competition to keep the leaders of the squad on their toes. Many new players have a promising future as stars in the next few semesters.

It seems that the girls' interest in tennis, which has lain almost dormant for a few semesters, has been regained with new vigor. Let's all get out and cheer these girls to a glorious victory. However, with cheering or without, we believe East High's tennis team has a radiant future.
